There Is More Than Increasing

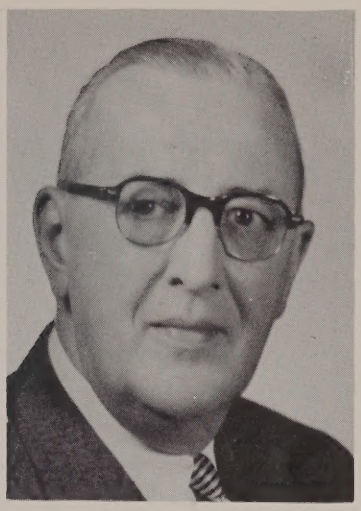
By Gerald Hillman, B.L.S. '61
and Lee J. Dunn, Jr., B.L.S. '61

Two strong teams are eager to clash . . . The traditional Latin-English game about to begin . . . There is a clipped, military march in the late November's crisp, morning air . . . The football spirit runs like wild contagion in the hearts of the players, and the fans. In a moment, the starting whistle will be blown. In a moment, both teams will move downfield swiftly, in a manner which brings to mind the rugged rush football they played against each other 72 years ago. There is, however, a pause in the proceedings, as the combined bands of the two great schools play "Our National Anthem".

To the tense, cold fans, on their respective sides of the grandstand, the song is often a useless, time-wasting, agonizing affair. Often to the players themselves, it only multiplies butterflies, those germs of the football fever which seem to find their way into people's stomachs, just before opening kickoffs. But, there is more to the song, than increasing its speed. To the meditative, it remains a symbol. A symbol of sportsmanship, of democracy, of opportunity.

When this hard-fought game is over, the winner might receive the greater acclaim, but the winner will not so impress those who know the meaning of a short, symbolic interlude in the morning's tension. For those who realize its importance will not consider only the outcome of the game, but whether sportsmanship governed that outcome. It would be a shame, if, in a land where all who wish to play may, fair play and regard for one another were forgotten qualities. No two people feel more strongly about this than Walter "Pep" McCarthy and William Stewart, the head-coaches of Latin and English, respectively. They advocate it; they emphasize it. High tribute has been given to the sportsmanship manifested traditionally in this classic gridiron duel. The City of Boston, the people of Boston, are very proud of this record.

To the Song, Its Speed



JOHN J. DOYLE
Latin Head Master

It is Thanksgiving. When we leave the stadium to our customary dinners, let's think a bit about that minute before the game. And when we thank God for blessing us with prosperity, when we thank him for the good food about to be eaten, let us thank him also for the fine instruction which fills our youth with a sense of fair play, self-respect, and self-control.

For when these boys leave the football field, they will go on to lead our nation in its uncertain future. It is ideals, logic like that bred on the gridiron, that will decide our fate. Yes, this is a grand sport, this football; it worries mothers, but it molds fine character.

Glancing at the Record

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Nov. 26, 1908 . . . EHS 6 BLS 6 . . . American League Grounds—Rainy morning, 55 degree temp.—25-20 min. periods—BLS favored to win for first time in five years—Notwithstanding rain and mud, both teams put on a great battle—EHS ouplayed LATIN in almost every department—Neither team made a first down in first eight minutes—In the middle of the period, Capt. Walter Cleary intercepted forward pass and ran 45 yds. for T.D.—He also kicked for the point.—EHS couldn't gain, and a punting duel ensued between Lennie Upham for EHS, and "Ginger" Fraser for BLS.—EHS gained about 25 yds. in every exchange of punts.

In second period, EHS went from midfield to a T.D. in ten plays. Upham went over from the 2 and scored point after.—Cleary, Mal Logan, Bill Pendergast and Vin Allison for BLS, and Upham, John O'Brien, Sturgis Pishon and Tom McCabe for EHS were powerful.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Nov. 30, 1933 . . . EHS 20 BLS 7 . . . Fenway Park—Attendance, 20,000—Rainy and warm day, 67 degree temp.—Playing to near capacity after a full season of more or less empty seats—BLS kicked off short to EHS 42—Little threw a forward pass which Bob Belekewicz intercepted—Foley punted and Roger Battles fumbled at the 23—Paul Dowd recovered for BLS—"Buddy" McLaughlin shot thru right tackle and "Rud" Hoye followed with a burst thru a hole opened by Crehan—Ball now on the 12, first down—Francis Foley went thru right tackle for T.D. Hoye passed to Davis for extra point.

In second period BLS kicked to Battles, who ran the ball back 30 yds.—EHS started to go—Seven plays and EHS on five yd. stripe—Battles took it over and Al Munchiello rushed for the point.—Score tied, 7 to 7.—EHS scored second T.D. in third period.—Munchiello caught a punt on his own 40, and ran it back 17 yds.—Little Threw forward to Battles on the 23 and four more rushes reached the 9.—Munchiello ploughed thru centre for the T.D.—The kick for point was wide.—Little kicked off to Davis, who fumbled and Paul Costello recovered for EHS on the LATIN 38—On fifth play Little scored T.D.—Munchiello made extra point on placement. All three EHS touchdowns went thru the centre.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Nov. 24, 1938 . . . EHS 6 BLS 0 . . . National League Field—Cold wind, cloudy, wet field, 34 degree temp.—This game was hard fought under terrible conditions.—The only scoring came in the third period.—On a fourth down, a bad pass from centre sailed over Ed Lambert's head and he had to down it on the one yd. line.—Frannie Reale EHS brilliant back, smashed across for the T.D.—He tried to rush for the point but was stopped.—Only other scoring gesture in the bitterly fought but even tussle came late in first period.—On EHS 11, Joe Kenney, on a fake tackle-around play, came out of the line and threw a lateral to Reale, who galloped 57 yds. to the BLS 38, where he was brought down from behind by Phil Jackson.—BLS had several scoring opportunities, but could not cash in.—EHS reeled 189 yards to 98 for BLS, but their margin was offset by numerous penalties, EHS suffering a total loss of 70 yards for rule infractions.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Nov. 25, 1943 . . . EHS 0 BLS 0 . . . Braves Field.—Attendance, 25,000—Beautiful Day Overhead, 28 degree temp.—Muddy field, after raining parts of three previous days.—During season neither team had lost or been tied.—EHS had not even been scored upon. ENGLISH favored to win.—Powell—It was Powell all morning—Moved the EHS team from its own 5 to the BLS 40 on three rushes around his own right end.—Time expired before he could score, leaving BLS in a badly disorganized state at the half.

After the intermission and Fitzie's pep talk, BLS fought with determination, but could not score, and neither did EHS.—Powell to Brady was good for 40 yards.—Brady was stopped on the 18 by Peter Garvin, BLS fullback.

On the next to last play of the game, Powell threw one to Capt. Andy Kelly at the 1—Garvin stopped Kelly just inches away from the goal line. Co-capt. Brown broke thru and brought down Powell on the 7 to end game. This was the ninth scoreless game of the series.

TEN YEARS AGO

Nov. 25, 1948 . . . BLS 19 EHS 0 . . . Harvard Stadium—Cloudy—37 degree temp., Attendance, 23,000. Bill Stewart's first year as EHS Coach.—BLS expected to win by two touchdowns—BLS beats EHS for first time in 7 years.—LATIN, carried mainly on the shoulders of Lee Markoff, ran all over ENGLISH before drizzle-drenched fans, who sat in on the 61st renewal of the oldest high school rivalry in the country.—Every time Markoff took the ball, he advanced.—twice running for T.D.'s.

In the second period he sparked a 58 yd. drive with a 15 yd. jaunt sandwiched among 5 five yard carries for his first T.D.—In third period, his 15 yd. scoot set up Ed Dempsey's score on a pass from Dick Walsh.—In the final minutes of the game, Markoff twisted his way 34 yds. into the end zone. Harvey Wolfe kicked the point-after. In Contrast EHS had no one who could catch Markoff, or any of the other LATIN backs. The nearest EHS got to the LATIN goal line was when Dick Baxter was grounded on the 48, after taking a pass from Stuart. Yards gained by rushing, BLS 346—EHS 27.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Nov. 26, 1953 . . . BLS 31 EHS 25 . . . Harvard Stadium—FAIR DAY—49 degree temp., Attendance, 12,000.—Ground soft—Rained previous day.—A right-left combination, plus the ability to cash in on breaks, gave BLS the victory over EHS in the 67th annual game. This was one of the wildest games, as both teams went on offensive binges, much to the delight of those present and thousands thru T.V.—BLS weapons were Co-capt. "Boots" Connelly and Norman "Duke" Schnider, each of whom scored twice.—As good as this pair was, only butter-fingered receivers prevented Bill McDonough from stealing the show.—The tall EHS quarterback passed for two T.D.'s and set up a third.—Five times, other passes were dropped.—BLS led in first period, 13-7.—Teams were tied at half, 13 all. BLS ahead 25-13, in 3rd period.—Beckett scored twice for EHS, Lorden and P. McDonough, once each, while Kirk made a T.D. for BLS. Schnider's extra point was a placement.—P. McDonough's extra point was on a pass from W. McDonough.—Yards gained in rushes, BLS, 353—EHS 117.

LAST YEAR

Nov. 28, 1957 . . . EHS 26 BLS 20 . . . At Harvard Stadium—Cloudy and windy at start, but sunny for 2nd half, 55 degree temp.—BLS started off with a bang, scoring twice and leading 13 to 0 at the end of seven minutes.—Brenci, on a double reverse, ran 28 yds. for a T.D.—Bart Blanchard, aided by a terriffic block by Art Tacelli, ran 58 yards down the left side for the longest run of the game.—After that, Randy Mullins took over for EHS.—He surprised all in 2nd period in setting up a score, by passing to Kennedy on the 12.—then again to the 2—Then, with BLS over-shifted to stop Randy, Sullivan went thru and McGaffigan kicked the point.—Within three minutes Monaco grabbed a BLS fumble on the 27—Two plays and Randy outraced the secondary for his first T.D., and McGaffigan again kicked the point. Score now, EHS 14 BLS 13. In the third period Mullins had to go 3 times to get his second touchdown. His first jaunt of 30 yards was nullified by an offside.—His second on a Statue of Liberty play for 40 yards was called back for a clip. Finally, he ran around the left end unimpeded.

Early in the last period, he caught a pass from Serra on the 7.—and hotfooted home.—BLS was not finished.—A pass from Bilodeau to Phil Murray in the end zone was recalled for an offside.—On the next try the play worked and Bilodeau kicked the point.—With about two minutes to go, EHS got the ball.—Mullins and Serra concentrated on line bucks to kill the clock.
